

Our Mission

The Guild's mission is to make the world more beautiful and to serve God through the sharing of handcrafts. Guild members find joy in the creation of useful things using the skills of sewing, knitting, and other handcrafts, and understand the process as a spiritual practice.

We seek opportunities to share these skills with others and maintain equipment and materials to make sewing and handcrafts accessible to all.

Guild members regularly produce handcrafted items that they donate for sale. Seventy-five percent of our proceeds goes to the local outreach ministries of the Episcopal Church of Saints James and Andrew, Greenfield, Massachusetts.

Our Services

We hold classes for adults in sewing and knitting for all skill levels on Tuesday's from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the Parish Hall Whiteman Room.

Sewing machines, fabric, knitting needles and yarn are all available free of charge for your use during our classes.

Drop in to join the fun and learn a new skill. Already know how to sew and knit? Bring along your latest project and stop by to join us!

Please enter through the Parish Hall parking lot door and turn left. You will find us ready to welcome you at the end of the hall.

Our team of experts are here to help you learn new and useful skills.

Learning fiber arts lets you express yourself through your creations. From selecting the pattern and fabric or yarn to putting on the finishing touches, every aspect of this activity allows you to be creative and gives you something to be proud of - that you made with your own hands.

Our Team

- Kathryn Aubry-McAvoy - Kathryn is a talented clothier who can show you how to follow a pattern. She is also an expert knitter and even keeps our machines in good repair.
- Di Kurkulonis – Di will “keep you in stitches” and is also very skilled at knitting and sewing.
- Molly Scherm - Molly is an expert quilter and is ready to teach you how. She is also an advanced knitter and stitcher.
